EASTON — CASA of the Mid-Shore is hosting an evening in CASABLANCA fundraiser on May 18 at the Trident Aircraft Hangar in Easton.

Vintage airplanes, antique cars, casino games, delicious cuisine and live piano music will enrich guests' experiences as they support CASA's mission of serving local children under court protection.

CASA's Board Secretary/Event Chair Chrissy McWilliams, and several of her committee members have been spotted at the airport planning for the big event.

"We are thankful to John Galdieri, owner of Trident Aircraft, for allowing CASA to host this year's event in one of Trident's hangars," McWilliams said. "It is a perfect venue for CASABLANCA and we encourage guests to get in the spirit of the evening by dressing in era or movie-themed attire."

The party will provide the opportunity for guests to play roulette, craps, or blackjack in Rick's Café Americain while enjoying live entertainment, Moroccan hors d'oeuvres, specialty cocktails and a sumptuous buffet.

Sherry Truhlar of Red Apple Auctions will kick off creative Fund-a-Need activities, bringing everyone together to focus on CASA of the Mid-Shore's mission.

CASABLANCA will raise funds to support CASA's work with children under court protection in Talbot, Dorchester, Queen Anne's and Kent counties due to abuse, neglect, abandonment, or their parents' inability to safely care for them.

"It's not too late to make your reservations, but they are going fast, and this is one party you won't want to miss," a press release stated.

Tickets are $150 per person. The deadline for reservations is Friday, May 10. To reserve seats or a table, visit www.casamidshore.org or call Kay Lister at 410-822-2866, ext. 3.
